| 5 Feb | Arrive in your home city with wonderful memories that will change the way you look at life. | |
|----------|--|-------------------|
| 4 Fe | Enjoy a relaxing morning before we fly to Delhi to connect with our international flights. | Varanasi- Home |
| 3 Fe | Wake-up early in the morning to go for sunrise boat cruise on the holy Ganges. Here, weather permitting, you will see one of the most beautiful and memorable sunrises, during which the whole drama of life (from womb to tomb) is played out on the bank of Ganges. Evening: Go to the Ganges for a spectacular evening aarti at Dashashwameth Ghat, the most fascinating daily ritual of Hinduism. | Varanasi |
| 2 Fe | Morning-Afternoon: After breakfast, fly to Varanasi, the most sacred city of Hindus and equally sacred for Jains and Buddhists as well. Situated on the holy Ganges, it is also known as the oldest living city on earth. During the time of Buddha, between 563 BCE and 400 BCE, it was already a flourishing trade center and the main hub of culture in India. Varanasi has stood as the symbol of Hindu renaissance and continues to preserve many cultural traditions, philosophy and rituals. Its ghats on the Ganges and numerous temples form the major attraction in the old city. Begin with a visit to Sarnath, the birthplace of Buddhism. Evening: Visit a silk weaving cooperative or do your own thing. | Varanasi |
| 1 Fe | Morning: Rise early for a sunrise tour of Taj Mahal to view this incredible and extravagant monument as the sun bathes it in an ethereal light. Built in the 17th Century by Mughal Emperor Shah Jahan as a memorial to his beloved wife, Mumtaz Mahal, it took 22 years and the labor of 20,000 men. The white marble for this perfectly proportioned building with its amazing delicate inlay work was transported to the site by elephants from a quarry 200 miles away. Breakfast back at the hotel. After breakfast optional visit to an artisan's cooperative and shop where beautiful marble inlay work is done. Afternoon: Drive to Agra Airport to catch a flight to Varanasi. Evening: Reach your hotel, check in and dinner at the hotel. | Agra |

Trip cost: $4950 includes: All transportation within India, 5 star hotels (on a sharing basis. Add $1200 for single supl.), yoga, breakfasts, 4 lunches, and dinners, porters, bottled water, hotel and driver tips, entrance fees, and group activities.
